With Accident.

Park City, May 15.—David Seamens, a though the Daly-West mine as timber handler on top, vesterday met with an accident at the mine which resulted in a broken leg and other minor bruses. Seamens, with an other man, was carrying a heavy piece of timber and stepped on some ice, which is still on the ground in that locality, with the result that he fell, the timber falling on his leg and breaking the bone below the man was at once taken to the Park City Miners' hospital, where his injuries were dressed, and he is getting along as well as could be expected.

A special train took a number of Park City people to Salt Lake this morning to be present at the funeral of C. F. Keith. The young man was well known in this town, having lived here nearly
